Every Woman Should Vote

Now that the suffrage amendment has passed, and women have been given the same privileges as men in the voting franchise, it is the bounden duty of every woman to register and vote. Judging from their past actions, too many real women will stay away from the polls and leave it to the more enterprising, claiming they haven't the time. No woman but can spare the minutes necessary to register and vote if she really and truly wants to, and those employed are entitled by law to two hours from duty, at full pay, to exercise their franchise. We have been promised for many years a general housecleaning in politics, and now is the time to begin the cleaning, as it is surely needed. Thousands of men have shown their faith in women by consistently supporting them in their struggle for the franchise and now is the time to prove that faith was not misplaced; so ladies, be up and doing, register and vote.

Guaranteeing at the Public Library

Almost every citizen is proud of our splendid public library and the educational advantages it possesses, hence have an ambition to have as many books drawn and read from its shelves as may be, many have been very liberal in signing guarantee cards for those who profess a desire to read the books. The writer has signed many cards in the years since we have had the library, and several times has been called upon to make good for books that were drawn and never returned. In many cases there can be but slight acquaintance with the person who asked for the favor, and few would care to refuse a person the opportunity of availing themselves of the library privileges, yet it is scarcely right that the guarantor should have to pay. If there are many such cases, few will care to sign for another and the usefulness of the library will be impaired, and in self-protection one will refuse, unless they know the applicant very well. It occurs to us that with the splendid organization of our library, that it should make investigation and if the applicant is found worthy the card be granted them without a guarantee, thus giving wider use of the books and with little or no loss to the library. It would be almost a calamity to have to refuse library privileges to a person, even a stranger, who might have no one to apply for guarantee, yet such a person would not find it easy to gain a card.

Which Paper Do You Want?

There are several papers published from the same office as the Englewood Times, 540 W. 63rd St., and some confusion results from our friends not stating distinctly which paper they want their classified ads published in, especially is this true when children are sent with the ad. We would ask that when copy is sent in, it be marked "Englewood Times" or simply "Times" and in that way there will be no confusion. There is no intent to misplace the ads, but people who do not know the difference between the papers, often make the mistake themselves.

The annual convention of the Cook County W. C. T. U. will be held in Willard Hall, Monroe and LaSalle sts., next Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 29th and 30th, beginning at 10 a. m. No evening sessions.

One of the clerks at C. Frank Berg's cashed a postal money order for $95 two weeks ago that has come back marked a forgery. The clerk says he had seen the fellow about and thought he knew him. We will save you time, money and annoyance; just bundle it up and telephone the Modern Laundry, Wentworth 987 or 988. We specialize in family washing and the ironing of flat pieces. Balance ironed at slight extra cost if desired. We guarantee you complete satisfaction.—adv.

Since wages are higher, the practice of carrying large amounts of currency in pockets has become popular.

This is dangerous. All surplus money should be deposited with a chartered bank in a Savings Account. Then the bank assumes all risk, and besides pays interest on the money.

A Savings Pass-Book with a growing balance is as comforting a pocket-piece as a roll of bills and is not so bulky.

SOFT WATER

Last week we gave you the impression that the water in the old rain barrel was soft and pure. Today science tells us a different story. The provisions of nature are bountiful, but the rains which refresh the earth have another mission—to clarify and purify the atmosphere. That means that the water in the cistern or that in the old rain barrel carried dust and grime from roofs and trees. This water was not pure and soft.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

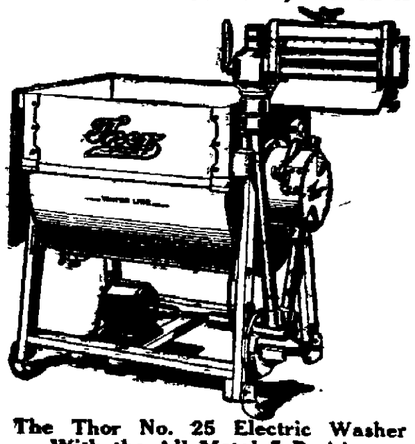
Proof that the Thor Electric Washer
With the All Metal Swinging 5-Position Wringer is the Safest, Most Sturdy Machine Built



The Thor No. 25 Electric Washer With the All Metal 5 Position Swinging Wringer $150.00

A Fact

A few days ago a mechanical engineer, with some 20 years experience, called at our sales rooms and after satisfying himself as to the superior construction of the Thor Washer, put the Thor Wringer to a severe test, by throwing his bodily weight on the wringer and allowing his feet to be brought clear of the floor by drawing his body up with his entire weight of 195 lbs. resting on the end of the wringer. The Thor Wringer did not sag, even one-sixteenth of an inch. He was so convinced that he is now the proud owner of one of our Thor Swinging Wringer Machines.

After smoking your first Spur, you might say "just right," "immense" or "great"—means the same thing. Means: "There was room at the top for a cigarette that can refresh a tired and much tried taste. And Spur's that cigarette."

In the new Spur blend you find:

The richness of the full bodied Oriental leaf tempered by the mildness and fragrance of Burley and other choice home-grown tobaccos. It's a happy blend that brings out to the full that good tobacco taste.

And what's more! Satiny imported paper, crimped, not pasted—makes an easier-drawing, slower-burning cigarette. A mighty neat "brown and silver" package, with triple wrapping, keeps Spurs fresh and fragrant. Just smoke a Spur and see.

Middle Age at 35 or 60?

Physician Explains Why Lack Of Iron In the Blood Saps the Strength and Vitality and Often Makes Men and Women Look and Feel Old Before Their Time.

By Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author

Signs of old age are plainly to be seen in many a man and woman who ought still to be enjoying the rugged health and activity of the early prime of life. Yet often the real cause of their decline is nothing more than lack of iron in the blood and it is surprising how quickly these conditions are frequently corrected once the right kind of iron is supplied.

I am constantly coming across cases in my practise where people not yet 40 show much of the nervousness, lack of energy and general run-down condition which might possibly be expected to come twenty years later in life while others at 60 may still be young in feeling, mentally alert with steady nerves and strong bodies.

Whether we have health and long life is often a question which each one must determine for himself. Signs of old age are largely due to a deposit of waste matter in the blood vessels and cells of the body. Without plenty of strength-giving iron the blood is utterly lacking in the power to overcome this slow poisoning process and keep the body strong and healthy. To make up for this deficiency I usually prescribe organic iron like Nuxated Iron which by enriching the blood and creating thousands of new red blood cells helps renew the wasted tissues and build strength and energy to withstand the ravages of time. I know of no more simple means by which a person can find out if his blood needs iron than by making the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength and see how much you have gained. Nuxated Iron will increase the strength, power and endurance of delicate, nervous run-down people in two weeks' time in many instances. You can procure Nuxated Iron from your druggist on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or your money will be refunded.

Englewood Dancing Teacher Honored

After a six weeks' stay in New York city, where she took up her annual course of advanced study, Mrs. Ermie Schultz, instructress at the Englewood Dancing Academy, 6603 S. Halsted st., returned last week and has taken up the work of teaching again at the studio.

Wins Highest Honors

Mrs. Schultz, who, with Mr. L. C. Schultz, conducts the Englewood

Mrs. Ermie Schultz

Dancing Academy, was awarded highest honors for performance in the Signora Stefano Mascagno ballet in New York city during her recent trip and is considered one of the best informed and most capable of instructors in classical, interpretative, ballet and ballroom dancing.

Best Equipped Studio

The studio conducted by the Schultzes is one of the best appointed and most comfortable in the city.

The long experience of both Mr. and Mrs. Schultz enables them to give authoritative instruction in all forms of dancing whether it be clogs, steps, bucks or ballroom, ballet or classical. The finished artistry of their work is best demonstrated at the periodical recitals of pupils whose grace, charm and efficiency is marveled at by all who see them perform. A recital last May of children under fifteen years of age gave a demonstration of ability and careful training that was considered wonderful by critics present.

Demonstrates for Masters

Mrs. Schultz has for several seasons demonstrated new dances before the Chicago Dancing Teachers' Association and the American National Association of Master Dancers.

Mr. Schultz has conducted studios in the Athenaeum building, Kimball Hall and Great Northern theater.

The Englewood Dancing Academy has been conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Schultz since 1910 and enjoys a splendid reputation both with teachers and students.

Calumet High School Won State Fair Award

The Calumet high school has just received the first prize of $70.00 awarded by the Illinois state fair. This prize was offered for the best general exhibit of the school work and activities, the school being allowed to choose the departments which were to exhibit. Calumet selected the work in English, biology, mechanical drawing, freehand drawing and extra school activities including athletics.

Calumet has won individual prizes on a number of previous occasions but this is the first time they have entered for the general competition, and the students and faculty naturally feel very much pleased that they have been awarded the first prize for the complete exhibition.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Compare the prices at the Marlowe with those of any other house of equal standing and merit. The general admission for every night excepting Saturdays, Sundays and holidays is only 22c, 22c and 17c, while on these special days, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, the prices are but 44c, 33c and 22c, and at the special matinee for ladies and children Saturdays the bargain prices are 22c and 11c. Can you beat it anywhere?

The beautiful new Marlowe with its solid comfort, splendid ventilation and regulated heat makes it the popular amusement place in central Englewood by its diversified programs, special feature pictures, comedies, travel and episodes all in the films and then a fine vaudeville bill, including about everything from the single one-act to the musical comedy company with its girly girls and its funny comedians.

No house in the city enjoys a higher reputation for good pictures than the Marlowe, and none are in a position to secure better ones. Messrs. Plough and Coffman are experienced old time show men, know everyone and everyone knows them. They have a number of houses in different parts of the city and by uniting their bookings can secure better pictures than any single house, and as a natural consequence can afford to put on better and more expensive films than can the owner of a single house.

Their vaudeville is unexcelled. The manager, Mr. Griggs, is an old time vaudeville man, knows the game thoroughly, knows the people and knows how to get them in their best acts as soon as they are out, hence can offer a better program and one of greater variety than the ordinary vaudeville house. The beauty of their programs is that they cater to a better element than most places of amusement and must necessarily put on nothing but good acts. These acts are of wide scope and always amusing, interesting and entertaining so that there is not a program but has something to entertain and amuse people of the most diverse tastes.

A feature of the Marlowe is its rest room for ladies and babies, a regular creche and nursery with toys and playthings to amuse those too young to enjoy the shows. The Saturday matinee looks like a juvenile picnic and mothers and kiddies from far and near go to the Marlowe's special Saturday matinees.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The Empress theatre is drawing extraordinary crowds at this season. In fact they have gained over the attendance of the early summer when they closed for the heated season, and the beautiful new decorations are a source of unending delight as the effect upon entrance is at once joyous and cheerful.

The programs arranged by Manager Mitchell are away above any before attempted in any outside house, and the top line attractions of the best "loop" houses are seen each week at the Empress. The variety of entertainment is a never-failing source of enjoyment, and instead of the regular routine of hoop rolling, a contortionist and a bar act, every variety of performance will be seen at the Empress with grand musical features predominating. From the best of grand opera to the jazziest-jazz, from the dear old melodies of our grandmother's days to the latest songs of the period, and from every instrument from the piccolo to the latest saxaphone, the one-stringed Chinese fiddle to the richest violincello and interspersed with these comes acts of wonder, athletic, and mystifying as well as feats of strength and daring. In all the Empress programs are calculated and studied to please everyone at all times, and blase indeed must be the man or woman who cannot enjoy an afternoon or evening at this excellent house. The pictures are good first view features and travelogues and comedies that take in all that is best in filmdom. You cannot miss a good show at any time and go when you will, you will find a program that will make the hours pass but too rapidly. Try a visit to the Empress when you feel stale or blue and you will repeat the prescription.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Peck & Jennings, the producers and managers of the "Jazz Babies," with Mickey Markwood, Don Clark and Rena Vivienne which is scheduled to appear at the Englewood Theatre next week, starting Sunday, Sept. 26th, have succeeded in getting together one of the best casted shows in the realm of burlesque. A new two-act musical comedy has been provided which gives these famous comedians ample scope to display their versatility and talents. This new production has been built along entirely new and original lines and is destined to hold a lasting impression in the minds of burlesque lovers.

Rena Vivienne, at Englewood Theatre

The book, which is from the pen of Don Clark is replete with comedy situations, witty dialogue, exquisite costumes, and teems with charmingly pretty girls in the chorus contingent of twenty, each one of whom is an especially featured singer and dancer. The splendid cast in addition to the featured artists already mentioned, is composed of the most prominent and capable artists in the vaudeville fields and includes Jake Kennedy, John Kane, Dolly LaSalle, Bonnie Lloyd and many others too numerous to mention.

Help the High School Boys

Englewood has been the banner football team in the city schools from time immemorial, and only lost out on the county last year by poor and inadequate equipment. This year is no exception; the boys have a fine team, and are already at practice and ask the support of the people of Englewood, businessmen and residents to equip themselves properly. A committee will get out after contributions and those who have not been seen as yet will help mightily in the good work by sending a modest check to the "Captain Football Team," Englewood high school.

Englewood Post American Legion Meets at Ogden Park

Englewood Post No. 61 of the American Legion are now holding their meetings at Ogden Park in the assembly hall, where they have access to the gymnasium, swimming pool, dancing hall and all the conveniences of this pretty park. Every member should endeavor to attend the meetings, as the Victory medals are ready for distribution and Adjutant Farrar has a message for every old soldier in the town.

No matter how large or how modern the house may be, after all the pictures are the thing the people go to see, and for this reason the Harvard, though it's rather warm for indoor recreation, always plays to good houses. One glance at Manager Costin's bookings will convince anyone that his house always has the best the first views and the most approved films that are released. The coming week is no exception, beginning today and tomorrow with Charles Ray in his latest rural picture, "A Village Sleuth," and our young friend Charley is there with the goods. There was dirty work afoot! Gosh! Even folks that wasn't detectives knew that. For why them tracks to the lonely lake? And a rich man vanished? And funny goin's-on in that smart doctor's Home for Nervous Women? And a fortune in jools stolen? And the mystery house in the woods? And all them jealous, accusin' eyes on a sweet and beautiful actress lady who never, never done wrong? But Nicholas Carter Wells had a clue, and—sh-h-h! Come see Sherlock Holmes' ghost turn green with envy. Five rousing reels of laughs and excitement!

On Sunday and Monday the Harvard offers "Fatty" Arbuckle in his big feature drama, a grand picturization of the famous play, "The Round Up." Dick Lane goes out prospecting, leaving the girl he loves in the care of Jack Payson, his best friend. Dick strikes it rich, but on his way back is robbed and tortured by a band of Indians. He is found and taken by friends to a hospital. A report comes home that he is dead. Jack woos and wins the girl and the wedding date is set. A short time after, Jack receives a letter from Dick, saying he is alive, and enclosing another letter for the girl. It is then that Jack sacrifices honor for love, tears up the letters and withholds from the girl the news that her former lover is still alive. The picture is also filled with excellent comedy—thanks to Roscoe Arbuckle, who by arrangement with Joseph M. Schenck stars in the role of Slim Hoover, the fat sheriff, the role that was essayed in the stage production by Maclyn Arbuckle. George Melford directed and the cast is far above the average. Mabel Julienne Scott plays opposite the star.

On Tuesday comes the dashing little star, Dorothy Gish, in her latest photo comedy, "Little Miss Rebellion." Fact was, poor thing, she was royal and nasty rich, and never had a good time in her life. Couldn't eat without a swarm of servants. Couldn't ride without a string of lackeys. Couldn't be regular. Couldn't love. Couldn't—But wait! One day something broke! Now all her awful conventions, nobles, flunkeys and things are—where?

But possibly the crowning attraction of the week will be on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 29th and 30th, matinee and night, when beautiful Clara Kimball Young will be seen in her greatest photo-dramatic masterpiece, "For the Soul of Rafael." Rarely, if ever, has the placing of a ring upon the finger of another been known to bring immunity from death. Yet such was the power of the famous Mystery Ring of the Hill Indians, worshipers of the Sun, as portrayed in Clara Kimball Young's picture, "For the Soul of Rafael." Raquel Estevan, the heroine of Marah Ellis Ryan's story of early Californian life, was, by adoption, a member of the tribe of Hill Indians, and according to tribal ritual, attended the ceremony of the New Year, when the Indians relight the sacred fires on their altars in honor of the Sun. She was given gifts of sandals, an Indian robe, and a ring. Late at night she is led into the hills, where the Indians are gathered around an altar awaiting their coming. The chief calls upon Raquel to take up a torch, and light the torches of the four couriers, who will bear them to the tribes of the four winds. While Raquel is obeying instructions, the Indian sentinels, posted on the trails below, capture two white men, and the chief orders them to be put to death, thinking that they are spies. The nurse whispers to Raquel that if she should put her Indian ring on the hand of one of the white men, they would be saved. Raquel quickly takes her ring off and places it on the hand of Bryton. Later, Raquel discovers that through the act of placing the ring on the white man's finger she is, by all the rights of the Indian ceremony, betrothed to him. How Clara Kimball Young, in the role of Raquel, meets the exigencies of tribal customs may be discovered when the picture will be shown at the Harvard Theatre.

LINDEN THEATRE

The Linden was the first theatre in town to avail themselves of the service of their excellent orchestra as soon as the musicians' strike was declared off, and Manager Tom Johnson is very happy as the sweet strains of his excellent orchestra discourse beautiful and appropriate music to the splendid program of plays.

For today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, the Linden offers Dorothy Dalton in "Half an Hour." There is no use trying to describe this wonderful play in which the life of a family are crowded into the thirty minutes of half an hour. The story of a girl who married to please her family—and loved to please herself! Crowding into half an hour of a woman's life more sensations than most of us know in all our years. One of the most remarkable dramas of England's greatest playwright. Sumptuously set, and aglow with the beauty and dash of Dorothy Dalton. Also Friday, Pathe Review and Rolin Comedy. Saturday, Mutt & Jeff and News Weekly. Matinee attraction, Episode 13 of "The Vanishing Dagger."

A grand three-day attraction is offered for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 26th, 27th and 28th, in that most beautiful of screen stars, Louise Glaum, in the best of the screen dramas, "The Leopard Woman."

The passion of the tropics in a fascinating enchantress. A story of richness and splendor, of the great longing of a woman's heart and the great desire in a man's brain. An opulent romance of conquest, intrigue and mystery played against a background of panoramic beauty. A wonderfully beautiful play just released and first production is at the Linden. Also a comedy of comedies, "His Wife's Caller," which is the heartiest of the keen cutting laugh makers. Together they make a program that cannot be excelled and you should not miss them.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 29th and 30th, that prime Englewood favorite, Wallace Reid, supported by Lois Wilson, in the Paramount success, "What's Your Hurry?" This is a splendid story, new and attractive and is taken from a good story, which has been made into a fine picture. It has to do with an oldish gentleman who is constantly dismayed at the playfulness of youth and the plaudits of those about him who watch the play. He believes work should earn as much applause; his fondest desire is to see a truck cheered for its worth-while work as buoyantly as a racer for its unworthy winnings. His would-be son-in-law is a racer by profession and speed maniac by inclination. It's when the oldish gentleman says "no" to his suit and covers his declaration with the intimation that if he, the racing youth, can "put over" Parco trucks, that things begin to happen. I do not remember a picture where an inanimate thing—if a truck is inanimate—played so important a part.

Manager Johnson announces as a leading coming attraction, William Farnum in "If I Were King." The picture is an adaptation from the play and story by Justin McCarthy. It is of Francois Villon, vagabond poet of France, who, for one brief week, owing to a whim of his king, found himself grand constable—the first man in the realm. And in that week he was permitted to save his country, his neck, and win the high-born lady of his heart. The thing that makes the acting of William Farnum enjoyable is the obvious fact that he's having such a good time himself. He revels in the rags and eccentricities of Villon. As grand constable he is just as happy. He loves his pretty clothes; he loves his authority; he loves his girl; he loves his king. A male Pollyanna, if ever there was one!

Found a Skeleton in the Closet

The National Theatre Stock Company are to play one of those murder mystery plays next week. This style of play seems to be all the rage just at present, for in New York alone there are four of them running at the present time. "The Other Wife" is the name of next week's play by Englewood's favorite players, and will give each member of the company another wonderful opportunity to demonstrate to their respective admirers just what they are capable of. The play is filled with mystery, and a very interesting story unfolds of a skeleton in the family closet and a very popular member of the profession of law finds himself in a peculiar predicament, owing to a boyhood escapade. His family respect him and love him, placing every confidence in him, and then when the bomb falls, the audience wonders how he can extricate himself and that constitutes the story of the play, which has lots of good comedy as most all of these mystery plays have. No matter how serious a situation may be there is always a laughable side to it, and therein lies the beauty of a mystery play. Mr. Hall will play the part of the lawyer, Miss Emmy Martin will assume the role of his wife, while the rest of the National favorites will be there, including Adele Lawton, Milton Kibbee, Louis Hollinger, Earl Ross, Virginia Stuart, Harry Hexworth, and Griff Barnette. Matinees will be on Sunday, Thursday and Saturday at 2:30, and every night at 8:15 sharp.

WALLACE REID
That Prince of Comedy Stars In
'WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?'

Supported by Lois Wilson and Charles Ogle

So many things demand greater attention in this picture than the star, that one leaves feeling Reid has done excellent work. He has, as a matter of fact, and because it's seen through a barrage of rain and mud and motor trucks and the really splendid acting of Charles Ogle. If you've had any ideas about Wallace Reid's uppishness, here's a good time to get rid of them.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

THE FOREMAN'S PRAYER

Now, as I lay me down to sleep this night,
I pray the Lord the form is locked up tight;
That the blamed old thing will stick together
Long enough the weekly run to weather,
And now I pray the ads are not balled up,
While with boundless joy 'twould fill my inky cup
If leads and slugs are all well pounded down
And the boss on my makeup does not frown.

Now, as I lay me down to sleep this night,
I pray the Lord my work is all done right;
That the news is not mixed up with the ads,
And nothing funny mixed in with the sads,
And, too, I pray the date is rightly changed,
As well as that the slugs are well arranged,
Each head with a neat jim dash between,
And, Lord, I pray the paper comes off clean.

If my humble prayer could but be granted
Sleep this night would be enchanted.

Now the politicians have let up on their millions of literature, maybe the business people can get their mail the same week it is sent.

As I read the papers I am firmly convinced that even the wise men takes their turns at playing fool.

If you see an editor who pleases everybody, there will be a plate glass over his face, and a smell of flowers about and he will not be standing up.

When the poetic lady said "I would only marry a man who has lived and suffered," Casey kindly asked, "Oh, so yiz do be wantin' a widdyar?"

A certain irascibile father when confronted by an Englewood youth shouted roughly, "Well, I suppose you want to be my son-in-law," and the mild young chap just answered, "No, I don't care particularly for that, but I suppose I must if I want to marry Gertrude."

For a joke one of the office force fastened a "closed for Jewish holiday" sign on the private office door of "Billy" McDonnell, our Irish editor. "Billy" gave it a glance and took advantage of it and left the office for the day. He says any excuse for a holiday is good enough for him.

The Judge had reason to believe there was "something wrong" with the jury and after a case entirely misjudged, said, "I will discharge the jury," but one lank, lean cadaverous looking cuss said, "Say, Judge, you can't discharge me, cos I was hired by that cuss over there," pointing to the lawyer for the defendant, and the proceedings proceeded.

C. Frank Berg's Store Enlarged

The splendid increase in his business has compelled Frank Berg to enlarge his store at 326 63rd St. by adding 30 feet to the length. This comes just at the time he is receiving his new fall stock and makes it possible for him to make an extraordinary fine display of all that is latest and best in men's furnishings.

Rappaport Bros. Robbed of $20,000

Rappaport Bros., furriers at 412 63rd St., had unwelcome callers at their store Friday morning very early and in the chill of the early day took away with them about $20,000 worth of furs, being the choicest and best in their stock. As the door was locked at that early hour, the callers made an entrance through the roof and ceiling and must have sent a very small boy down a rope to open the rear door for them, and it must have taken a truck to carry off their loot. The police have no clue so far as know. There was $10,000 burglary insurance on the stock, but the over amount will be a sad loss to this firm of young men who are making a good start in Englewood. They have restocked as best they could and are continuing the business as before.

This organization which has charge of the Protestant Home for Children at 6323 Yale Ave. has issued a letter to members and friends asking them to attend the meetings on the fourth Thursday of every month, and for active members only, the second Thursday of every month at 19 W. Adams St. The members are reminded that vacation is over and it is the duty of everyone to do their full duty. If your dues are not paid, pay them now. Mrs. Ida M. Stephens, president, and Elsie Brough, secretary.

Popular Sunday Eve. Series Begins at Englewood Baptist Church

On Sunday evening, September 26th, Rev. George R. Stair, pastor of the Englewood Baptist Church, Stewart and Englewood Aves., begins a series of popular Sunday evening addresses on the general subject of "Wedding Bells," discussing various phases of the always interesting topic of love, courtship, marriage, the home, etc. The full list of subjects, dates, and other information of interest concerning this notable series appears elsewhere in this issue.

Large audiences greet Mr. Stair at both the morning and evening services of his church since he returned from his vacation. Many people come from long distances to hear him, so it would seem that our people right here in Englewood, especially young men and women, should not miss this opportunity to hear him at his best for he is preeminently a "young people's" preacher.

The announcement that Lusinn Barakian, the noted Armenian soloist, will sing each Sunday evening should in itself pack the church. Miss Barakian has a wonderful voice, which has delighted great audiences in Chicago, New York and other cities where she has appeared. The chorus choir is again in its place following the vacation period, and with Mrs. W. A. Huyck at the organ renders the beautiful anthems selected, most effectively. In fact the entire musical program at each service is of the highest character.

The Engleboosters

During the week of September 13th, the Engleboosters carried on a successful campaign for one hundred per cent membership. The first group to reach the goal was Mr. Sackheim's division in Room 317. Mrs. Gay's division in Room 101 took second place. On Monday, September 20th, at the close of school a party was given for the ten rooms which were first to obtain the required membership. A program of vocal solos, recitations and solo dances given in the hall was followed by dancing and refreshments in the gymnasium.

A Pleasant Surprise

The teachers of the school meeting in council on Tuesday afternoon were agreeably surprised by the almost magic appearance of several gallons of frappe to help them through their deliberations in the heat of a warm afternoon. The Engleboosters were the donors. The whole faculty showed their grateful appreciation not only by their enjoyment of the refreshment but by a vote of thanks to the Engleboosters.

Dr. Cady Called to Pilgrim Church

Pilgrim Congregational Church, 64th St. and Harvard Ave., have called the Rev. George R. Cady, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Clinton, Iowa, to be their pastor. The call was the result of a meeting of the membership and was unanimously extended on September 15th. The congregation was delighted with receiving the acceptance of Mr. Cady on Sunday morning.

From investigations of Mr. Cady and his work in Clinton, it was found that he was uniformly recommended by the Commercial Association of that city, with whose members he has been associated in an aggressive work for the combining of the community spirit for the benefit of the city of Clinton, Iowa.

By the calling of this gentleman to Englewood a young and aggressive man has been added to the pastors that have served the various churches in our community and with the Congregational Church in new repair, vigorous work will be undertaken immediately to co-operate with other churches in the interest of the community.

The illustrated hymns are also very beautiful and impressive.

Mr. Morehouse is highly recommended as a Bible lecturer. He says, "I want the statement 'Millions Now Living Will Never Die' to be taken literally as it is a provable Bible fact."

The lecture begins at 8 P. M. It is desired that children be accompanied by their parents. Prof. J. T. Read will direct the singing. Seats are free. Public invited. No collections.
